

SOFT ADVENTURE IN THE ISLANDS OF THE BAHAMAS

*Activities for All Types of Adventure-Seekers can be found
In, On and Around the Water*

Hesitant about being submerged in the underworld? Haven't found the urge to test run kite-surfing stunts? Extreme adventure activities aren't a fit for all travelers. And, while The Bahamas is ripe with many adrenaline-pumping choices, more conservative thrill-chasers will find there are a variety of options for soft adventure. With water averaging 80 degrees Fahrenheit year-round, The Bahamas offer perfect conditions to make a splash in any way you choose.

A number of outfitters can be found on Nassau Paradise Island and Grand Bahama Island, but there is also abundant adventure on other islands like The Abacos, The Exumas, Bimini and Andros and resorts are usually happy to assist in arranging local guides.

Choosing the Adventure Itinerary for You

- You don't have to dive deep to find rich marine life in The Bahamas. With over 700 islands, there are hundreds of snorkel sites to start exploring right from the beach. See schools of colorful fish, a variety of reef formations and, if you're lucky, maybe even a dolphin or two.
- Family fun options like island tours, swimming with friendly pigs, dolphins or stingrays are a great way to take advantage of the beautiful weather and natural habitats. Whether you have little ones or big ones, everyone will enjoy these excursions.
- Want to be on the water but aren't in the mood to take a dip? Elect a day out at sea. The Bahamas has a rich history of boating, fishing and kayaking and each can be arranged through vendors and tour operators on every island you visit.
- From birding to nature hiking, historical and cultural sites, adventure goes beyond the ocean's surface. Dozens of activities can be found inland on each of the islands.
- For many, lounging beachside with a Bahama Mama or Kalik beer is adventurous enough. Lucky for you, some of the best and most unspoiled beaches in the world are found throughout The Islands Of The Bahamas.

With so many options, it's easy to tailor experiences to meet the needs of travelers and companions throughout The Bahamas. No matter where vacation planning leads, your adventure can always begin with a visit to www.bahamas.com.
